Ross DiCapo wins first SASBA title!

At the Age Bracket tourney at Cityview Lanes in Fort Worth, Ross DiCapo survived the 70 & over bracket to bowl in the title game vs. Gary Dickin-son and Dean Jones. All three hit the pocket on every shot, but Ross carried a little better and won the match with a 248. Gary was 2nd with 228 and Dean got third with a 206. It was the first time the 70 & over bracket survivor went on to win the tournament.

Thanks to Bill Blackerby and crew for being gracious hosts.

We had 99 total entries, the same as last year. With the three brackets vs. four (as were the last two), we were able to pay more on top and beef up the others prizes and the 2nd chance tournament as well.

The next Age Bracket event will be in Austin on May 12-13. Our next tournament is in two weeks. It is the Annual Christmas Team Tourney. This is the most fun tournament we have all year. The computer picks the teams and the tournament uses the Swiss format. Sign up early, as entries have to be in a multiple of five and the last 2-3-4 who enter could get shut out. There will be a BBQ dinner (included with entry) after bowling on Saturday. We will present the year-end awards at the dinner. We need to know if you will be attending the dinner and if you plan to bring a guest ($10 per guest).

Jim's Notes

Lilies were left by Jesse Jackson, Bryce El-lison, Leon Schon and John Sands. Leo Markwardt left and converted the 4-5-7-10 and made the finals because of it. Return appearances after long layoffs were made by Shawn Rasti, Ron DePolo and Jamie Brooks. We had three bowlers who were bowling in their first event.

Jim's Tip: If you're not sure which way to move after a flat or ringing ten, try to get in the habit of watching where your ball exits the pin deck. If it exits directly behind the 9-pin spot (right-handers), then it's probably getting there d.o.a. and you need to move left to find more head and/or midlane oil. If it's exiting between the 5-pin and 9-pin spot, then it's probably getting into a roll not quite soon enough and you need to move right.
