Mark Williams wins 11th SASBA Title!

After qualifying 2nd, Mark Williams adjusted to the transition in the finals faster and better than anyone and pulled away from the field to win his 11th SASBA title at Crossroads Bowling Center in Beaumont, TX. Paul McCordic bowled great to get 2nd, Jeff Clark was 3rd, Rick Minier finished 4th and Bob Troutt rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mark, Debbie and staff for being great hosts. The shot was fair, though the carry was tricky. Those who adjusted fastest struck mostest.

Troy Schanne made his first finals. Gary James had the only 300.

Our next tournament is the member/ladies doubles in Richardson, TX next week. The following week is the member/member doubles at Cowtown in Fort Worth. In April, we have the regular trio at AMF Showplace Euless and the member/guest doubles in San Antonio. It's not too early to start lining up teammates for these events.

Jim's Notes

Hollywood left the 2-4-5-7-10...and picked it up! Cheeseburger made it! Skipper got a check. So did Dale Patterson! We had one first time bowler in Beaumont. Thurman Thomas Sr. says that Mr. Williams is now the president of the TET club. You'll have to ask Thurman what that stands for?

Jim's Tip:

It's become very common for finalists who are struggling to pull out a new ball and try a new line with the practice shots before the position round...then reel off a 260 plus game. My tip is...don't wait this long to try something different if the pins don't like what you've been giving them. In one or two "experimental" shots, you may learn enough to make you hundreds of extra dollars in the finals.
