Out on The Twig

Les Burnham wins Age Bracket Tourney in Austin!

Les Burnham led the qualifying in the 70 & over division, then marched through Albert Waites and Jerry Beavers to reach the title match vs 50-59 survivor Mike McHugh and 60-69 winner Phil Bailey. In the title game, no one could double until Les in the 5th. Everyone stayed clean and entering the 9th, anyone could still win. Phil doubled in the 10th for 215. Mike then struck out except for 9 on the fill ball for 226. Les had to have spare/strike to win by one. He did just that and squeaked out the victory with a 227. It was Les' 2nd SASBA title.

Thanks to De-wayne Washington and crew for being great hosts. The shot was fair and the bowl was clean. The host hotel went all out and provided free breakfasts Sat. and Sun. for all SASBA bowlers who stayed there.

Brunswick rep Robert Lawrence was there Friday and Saturday and stayed busy schooling SASBA bowlers about the Brunswick line.

Walt Banks bowled and made the finals. John Caldwell made his first finals. Roy Chesbro and Jeff Clark had the only 300s. Jeff broke the SASBA four game series record with 1148 out of the gate Saturday.

Our next tournament is a member/guest doubles at Armadilla 1 in Pasadena, TX on May 26 -27. The next week, we'll be at USA Bowl in Dallas for a SS singles event.

Jim's Notes

Butch and Blane both had to withdraw with back problems. Get well quick guys. Ernest bowled great, but needs a new calculator. Beavers remembered his clothes, but Albert forgot everything Sunday morning. Milton won the Sunday sweeper for the second year in a row.

Jim's Tip: It can help you a lot if you watch the bowlers you are following throw a few shots before you move there. Are they playing the same place you are? If so, that pair is likely to be a little drier. Is everyone outside of you and going up the boards? If so, that pair might be tighter where you are playing, but display more over/under. There are lots of ways the bowlers you follow can affect your ball reaction. Being more aware might save you a big split, which can save you a check or be the difference in winning or not.

Friday Sweeper Results

1. Pat Currie 537
2. Roger West 501
3. Mark Estes 495
4. Phil Bailey 492
5. Phil Bailey 484
