Out on The Twig

Dennis Francis and Joe Lecroy win Member/Guest in Pasadena!

In 23 years of SASBA tournaments, two seniors had never won a member/guest tournament...until this last weekend. In a star-studded field that include PBA Hall of Famers, a two-time U.S. Open Champion, regular PBA tour champions, the current Collegiate Champion, several regional champions and the 2nd best two-hander in the world, seniors Joe Lecroy and Dennis Francis led the qualifying and all but a few games in the finals to win the title!

Quite a feat for two old guys (one a super senior). Congrats!

Thanks to Dana and Robert Browder and Randy Ray for being fantastic hosts. Their attention to detail and hospitality was noticed by all. The shot was fair and stayed high-scoring...even late in the blocks.

Our next tournament is a Super Senior singles at USA Bowl in Dallas. The Firecracker is coming up in July. This is one of our majors with half the field cashing, two days of qualifying and double elimination match play in the finals. Seniors and Super Seniors are bowling for two separate titles. The week after that is our first Member/Guest Recruiter Doubles at Del-Mar in Houston. The guest has to be over 45 and if over 50, can never have bowled a SASBA as a Senior.

Jim's Notes

We had 13 300s and 13 800s in qualifying. Van Maryland made his first finals. Jeff Arnold is well again and back bowling. It was our first time to have a live webcast throughout the qualifying and finals. Everyone who watched was complimentary. We are working on a way to add live commentary without distracting the bowlers for future tournaments.

Jim's Tip:

Check out the message board for a visual quiz about this tournament. All responses will be appreciated. My answer will be posted later.
