

Bullock, West, Hayes & Fleming win foursome at Cowtown!

In the 70/60/50/ guest foursome at Cowtown Bowling Palace in Fort Worth, TX the team of Tip Bullock, Roger West, Doug Hayes and Paul Fleming qualified 2nd, then defeated the foursome of Bob Freehauf, Mike Lynch, Joe Lecroy and Anthony Lavery-Spah 236-217. The latter had won their first two matches vs Ben Edwards, Randy Summers, Delery Matherne and Paul Henderson 213-199 ...then 267-210 over Jim Wofford, Butch Calvert, Ken Johnson and Ryan Curtis. Waiting in the wings were qualifying leaders Les Burnham, Mark Estes, Tam Wasson and Geoffrey Young. Two missed spares by the leaders gave Tip & Co an early lead, but two splits by them and a turkey by Les's crew made it close again. Hayes struck in the 9th and Paul Fleming struck out in the 10th to make Young get two in the 10th. He went high on the first one and the title belonged to Tip, Roger, Doug and Paul 208-192.

Thanks to Jamie Brooks, Chris Johnson and crew for being great hosts. The shot was fair on both sides and the bowl stayed cool, despite being very hot outside.

Our next tournament is a Super Senior singles at University Lanes in Denton, TX on Labor Day weekend. Two weeks later, we have a member/guest doubles in Shreveport, LA and then we return to Fort Worth for a 60/50/guest trio at Cityview Lanes.

300s were shot by Scott Teel, Billy Rogers, and Ron Williams.

Jim's Notes

A.C. and Donahue both left lilies. Quadraslide converted the 7-10. Addington "liked it". Bates whacked'em! Win bowled great! DePolo killed'em!

Jim's Tip: The same house on the same pattern can break down completely differently...depending on who's bowling. In our events that have a younger guest on each team, the transition is much faster and much more... simply because the higher rev rates by the younger players eats up the oil in different places than tourneys with all seniors. Trying to stay lined up can be touchy and confusing. It might help if you try and practice deeper angles when your practice lanes are "chewed up" instead of just practicing on the fresh oil.

Friday Sweeper Results

1. Les Burnham 538
2. Mark Busscher 535
3. Ron Williams 523
4. Joe Lecroy 522
5. Mike Patton 502
