

Ken Johnson/Tyson Branagan win M/G Doubles in Shreveport!

Ken Johnson won his 2nd tournament in three tries since turning 50. He was partnered with Tyson Branagan and they covered more boards and struck more than any of the teams who made the finals. Bob Troutt and Mykel Holliman got 2nd, Joe Lecroy and Nathan Van Putten were 3rd, Mark Williams and Chris Lucas got 4th and Mark Busscher and John Harper rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mike Thomas and staff for being gracious hosts.

We had a full field for the first time in Shreveport. Glad to see our bowlers support a long-time host this well. Jacob Heger, Hayley Veitch, John Harper and Larry Thompson Jr.

had the only 300s.

Our next tournament is the 60/50/guest Trio event at Cityview Lanes in Fort Worth. The following weekend is the 70/60 Doubles at Cowtown Bowling Palace...also in Fort Worth. Let us know if you need a partner or teammate for either of these events.

Jim's Notes

Butch beat Mike! We had five father/son teams bowl in Shreveport. We had eight ladies bowl and two all-women teams. One septuagenarian (Jerry Beavers) made the finals.

Jim's Tip: When the lanes are dry, it's hard for seniors to try and generate more speed with muscle. Also, it's usually counterproductive. If you use more muscle without altering the length of your swing, you'll just grab it more. The ball will stand up quicker and nothing will be gained...except being more tired. The best adjustment is to create a longer swing by starting the ball higher and/or taking your hand out of it to get more length.
