Out on The Twig

Dennis Francis wins Super Senior event in Shreveport!

Dennis Francis took the lead from qualifying leader Rick Minier in the 4th game of the finals, but entering the title match, T.J. Johnson trailed by 59...with Rick 5 pins further back. Any of the three could still win. Dennis started with a four bagger and T. J. got an early split to take himself out of it. Rick started with X/XXX and looked poised to shoot a big game. Dennis kept nailing the pocket and entering the 10th, needed a mark to stay ahead of Rick who went off the sheet for 280. It was 10 in the pit again and Dennis had the title. Rick got 2nd and Roger passed T.J. for 3rd. Mike Marks rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mike Thomas and crew for hosting. They seemed to have worked out any previous problems with their new lane machine.

Bill Fillman has not bowled in a while, but still throws it good and made the finals. Sam Magill made the finals from A squad, but went home...assuming the scores would go way up on B squad. Gary Dickinson got to replace him.

Our next tournament is the Annual Championship in two weeks at AMF Showplace Euless. Half the field cashes in that one and there is a sweeper with $500 added on Sunday for those who don't make it.

Two weeks after that is a regular singles at Del-Mar Lanes in Houston. The field is limited to 88 bowlers for that one.

Jim's Notes

Butch beat Mike, but scored 6.1 on a spill on the lanes. We're talking Richter Scale! He let go of the ball, so zero, but converted the spare. Don't worry, he's okay. Technically, though it was still a CP. Lynch and Elderberry had more traditional CPs. Horace hit half pocket and the 5, 7, and 10 were the last to fall and they all fell FORWARD! Scary. Martin got a check. is week.

SPECIAL NOTICE: We are no longer certified by USBC. The reason is because of our auctions. If you want more details, email me at jfking68@gmail.com and I'll send you the back and forth between us and USBC. We will still use USBC rules to conduct the tournament (with a few rare exceptions).
