Ken Johnson wins Annual Championship!

In the SASBA Annual Championship at AMF Showplace Euless, Rick Minier led the qualifying. Bob McGregor grabbed the lead after game 4 of the 12 game finals. Ken Johnson had qualified 4th, but surged to the top, winning match after match. He took the lead in game 5 and steadily pulled away leaving no doubt entering the game 12 who the winner was. Magoo won the last match to hold onto 2nd. Marshall Kulow got 3rd, Pete Thomas rose to 4th and Merv Parrish rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Rusty Dickinson for being a great host. The center is in the middle of a facelift, but Rusty made it easy for us to conduct the tournament. The shot was fair and held up well.

Steve Fuhrman made his first finals. 300s were shot by Doug Barron and Leon Aragon in qualifying and by Gary Dickinson in the finals.

Our next tournament is a regular singles next week at Del-Mar in Houston, followed by the Mixed Foursome in Plano. The foursome is full with one team on the waiting list. Don't forget the Age Bracket Tourney at Cityview the first weekend in December. It's the last chance to get in a 3rd tournament to make you eligible for the Annual Xmas Tournament at Cowtown.

Jim's Notes

Sal beat Jamie. Mike beat Butch. John Denton left the lily and had to ask for the five pin to be resotted when the machine dropped it. Very embarrassing, but John rebounded with a 537 in the sweeper and made the finals in the tournament. Estes won the 2nd chance the 2nd year in a row. Tip missed a check by one pin.

Jims Tip:

I think it's a good thing to not watch your score and focus more on just winning the next shot. However, you should get in the habit of checking your score at the end of the game and making sure the scorekeeper on your pair gets yours down accurately. People can make honest mistakes and if you don't catch it right away, it's hard to go back and check after the block is over.
