MIKE FLEMING WINS 9TH SASBA TITLE!

The four-man pairing of Mike Fleming, Bill Poff, Phil Ballard and Mickey Humphrey were 1,2,3,4 (in a different order) after Saturday, after Sunday morning and through much of the finals at Timber Lodge Lanes in Monticello, AR. Mike held a 68 pin lead going into the last game over Bill Poff from Nashville, TN. Bill was bowling for the title in only his 2nd outing. Mike won the last match 218-200 and defended his title in Monticello and captured his 9th SASBA victory. Phil got 3rd and Mickey faded a bit to 9th. Ralph Pridmore finished with a rush to get 4th and and Roy Parrish rounded out the top five.

Vickie and Phil Thompson are great hosts and made us feel at home again this year. Thanks to them and all the local volunteers who helped out. They had 99 in the pro-am and everyone had a good time.

Dean Brimingham made his first finals and finished 6th. Zapp beat the Law Dog. Grady was 100 yds from the bowl...and lost! Addington almost liked it. Randy dodged the broom. Toby beat Leon. Elderberry beat Youngerberry. In a stunning highlight, Gordon Stuntz ran out a lily!

Our next tournament will be at Billy Hardwick's All Star Lanes in Memphis, TN on March 19-20. There will be an early start, so make sure of your squad times.

We will be selling Ebonite/SASBA logo shirts for the next several tournaments. We will take orders and deliver within 2-3 weeks. There are several styles and colors available. Pocket shirts too! 2005 dues are overdue!
