MIKE FLEMING WINS 3RD IN A ROW!

It started in Monticello, AR, continued last weekend in Plano, TX and at Billy Hardwick's All Star Lanes in Memphis, TN, Mike Fleming made it three SASBA titles in three tournaments as he ran away and hid in the finals. Probably no one other than the PBA's Tommy Jones is as hot as Mike. The new Xxcel and Big Time from Ebonite really match up well with Mike's game and oh yeah...he's throwing it pretty good too. Bob Glass got 2nd, Roger West went from 13th to 3rd and Gary Dickinson nabbed 4th.

Thanks to Billy Hardwick's daughter Jamie Dunlap for being a gracious hostess. The shot was fair left and right and held up well. Scores were high and the machines ran great.

Jimmy Vickery and Clyde Gehringer made their first finals. Chuck Maher broke the record for the most 7-10 splits in one tournament (umpteen). Bernie and Cyrilla went "all in". There was a Bill Hatter sighting. Seagraves is still "twisting it". Walton was hooking it. Vescovo woke up Sunday.

Our next tournament will be at Midland Bowl in Ft. Smith, AR. It will probably be one squad, but we will draw for lane assignments Friday and regroup by score Sunday morning.

We will be selling Ebonite/SASBA logo shirts for the next 5 tournaments. We will take orders and deliver within 2-3 weeks. There are several styles and colors available. Pocket shirts too! 2005 dues are overdue!

Note the schedule change. The mixed foursome in Memphis is off! That weekend we will have a $3000 added/regular singles tournament in Conway, AR. They will have a pro-am on Friday evening.
