FLEMING/BURKENBINE WIN AT IMPERIAL!

Mike Fleming continued his record setting SASBA pace by teaming with Mark Burkenbine to win the member/guest doubles at Imperial Lanes in Memphis, TN.

Thanks to Bill Oyler, Grady Creasie, Mike Forbess and Dale McClerkin for teaming with mgr. Bobby McKinney and putting on a great tournament. This is a 48 lane house without automatic scorers and all the bowlers enjoyed the atmosphere, camaraderie and graciousness of the volunteer scorekeepers.

Grady and Chuck Gray led the qualifying and through 8 games Sunday, looked like they would run away with it, but lost their carry and finished 6th.

Doug Hayes and son Aaron almost made it a very special Father's Day by finishing 2nd. Dale Dumbleton and Butch Cooper grabbed 3rd and Rudy “Revs” Kazimakis and Charlie Hufford nailed down 4th place. Beavers/Thomas got rounded out the top five.

Lundgren was back in the finals. Mike Balazic had his first 300. Kevin Hartigan also had one and Cary Alexander and Jeff Shaw recorded 800s.

Our next tournament after Hot Springs Village is in Ft. Worth, TX at Cityview. This is the Firecracker Shoot-out and has $9000 added. It is two tournaments in one with a Super Sr. division and regular Senior division. Then, comes Conway, AR the third weekend in July. Two weeks later, we'll be at Little Rock for another member/guest tournament. The format is different for that one, as we'll try all the seniors on one squad and all the guests on the other. This should create more brackets and big boards and provide an exciting conclusion to B squad.
