FLEMING/FLEMING WIN IN LITTLE ROCK!

Mike Fleming is the hottest bowler in America, winning for the 9th time this year and 5th in the South Central Region. It rubbed off on his partner Paul Fleming (no relation) as they steadily chewed up the pins separating them from the lead at Millennium Bowl in Little Rock, AR. They ran down Jerry Swank and Royce Rusher and had an 88 pin lead entering the title match. They got the front 9 to seal the deal. Game, set, match!

Jerry and Royce held on for 2nd, Gary Dickinson and Todd Zenner bowled great to get 3rd and Chuck Pierce and Dino Castillo got 4th.

The scores were high with both sides able to get to the pocket easily. Thanks to Shane Gillmore for being one of our best hosts.

Kenneth Williams made his first finals and loved it. 300s were bowled by D.J. Archer, Charlie Hufford, Maury Newman, and Shane Lester. 800s were shot by Chuck Gray, Doug Hayes, and Gary Dickinson. I won the ugly shirt contest, then had to change after 1 game. Horace showed off his "breakfast wardrobe".

Our next tournament will be the Rene Tavan Memorial Doubles at Metro Bowl in Baton Rouge, LA. This will be separate qualifying for seniors and super seniors on Saturday, then they will be partnered up on Sunday for a Baker-style finals.

Labor Day, we will be back in Lafayette for the Labor Day Blowout at Lafayette Lanes. There will be $4000 added, 2 days of qualifying and a match play finals on Monday.
