PLAIA/DESLATTE WIN FIRST TITLES!

Leo Plaia and Terry Deslatte took the lead in game 1 of the finals, held it most of the way, then pulled away at the end to win their first SASBA titles.

You could not miss outside with out-of-bounds waiting for the righties and overhook lurking for the lefties and Leo and Terry were the most consistent shotmakers on the day. Great bowling guys!

Thanks to Tyler Strickland and staff for being gracious hosts. They had a pro-am on Friday and a good time was had by all. Metro Bowl took this tournament on short notice and did a bang-up job.

Mike Holland and Charlie Hufford finished strong to get 2nd place and Saturday leaders, Paul McCordic and Ben Edwards got 3rd. Gordon Stuntz and Mike Berry nailed down 4th place. First time bowler, Ron Delcambre made the finals and Dan Duncan made his first finals as well.

There were no award scores shot and Fred Anson and Henry Burchette got the “Dog of the Week” awards in each division with a 133 and 137 respectively. Fred also left a lily, but kept smiling through it all. William Ubrey had the cut made until he literally cut his finger. Leon and John overslept Sunday morning then bowled great the rest of the way.

This tournament illustrated why nothing is certain in our sport. Many former champions and “pre-tournament” favorites did not make the cut. Congratulations to those who were up to the challenge and did make it.

Don’t forget the Labor Day Blow-out at Lafayette Lanes on Labor Day weekend. Entry fee is $210 and there is $4000 added by the house. This format has sweepers on Friday, 6 games Saturday, 6 games Sunday, then match play (best 2 out of 3) on Monday. Top 1/3 or top 32 will make the cut. Those who bowl A squad on Saturday will bowl B squad on Sunday. If you have to be on a certain squad, let me know by Wednesday of that week.
