OZIO WINS S. CENTRAL ANNUAL CHAMPIONSHIP!

David Ozio bowled consistently and won most of his matches to outdistance Fred Barnes for the S. Central Annual Championship at Lafayette Lanes in Lafayette, LA. Nice bowling David! Fred bowled great, but had a target on his back in the final, winning only 4 of 12 matches. Bob Purzycki went from 11th to 3rd, winning 11 of 12. Randy Summers bowled steady to get 4th, Doug Hayes got 5th and Kirk "Hollywood" Harper rounded out the top six.

Thanks to Randy LeBlanc and Ric Boudreaux for being great hosts. The boudin and cracklins were great and they had a big pro-am Friday night.

Jimmy Young set a SASBA record for running out 8-10 splits. Melvin made the cut. Ziggy did the "Machuga Flop? Claude could not dodge the fast-moving pole in the parking lot. Sid is on valium, riding with him. Gordon Stuntz, exhibiting the only ball anywhere close to Bobby Walls power, has been named permanent Lily Club President. Roger could not kick out the 5-7. Jamie had 5 games w/o a double. Ric Boudreaux won the 2nd chance tournament. Randy was presented with his Lily Club membership card, then proved it was no fluke, leaving another.

Our next tournament is a team tournament in Leesville, LA., Jan. 21-22. This tournament is rescheduled, due to the hurricanes. You have to have bowled one tournament in 2005, to be eligible, unless out due to injury. The computer selects the teams based on SASBA averages. Anyone can win in this format. The house has added $5000 to make this a big event. They are planning a pro-am on Friday. The field is limited to the first 60 paid entries. Enter early because the field has to be a multiple of 5 and the last 1-4 to enter could get shut out. Entries are due by Jan. 20th. Entry fee is $160.

A partial schedule for 2006 is included. We hope to fill up most, if not all the open dates. If you want a SASBA stop in your hometown, now is the time for action. Get in touch with me at 800-682-2198. The Bowler of the Year ballots are enclosed also.

Lastly, thanks for all the cards, flowers, wishes and prayers over the last two months. Our extended SASBA "Family" made the tough times much, much easier. Kathy and I will never forget your kindness.
