VOWELL, LIVERMORE, PUTNAM, WOOD, COOVER WIN!

Coover & Crew, led by Ed Vowell's tournament leading average won the belated SASBA S. Central's team tournament at Louisiana Lanes in Leesville, LA. First time champ Bob Livermore, 2nd time champs Mel Wood, Paul Coover and Jackie Putnam helped Ed to his 4th SASBA title. They beat Whole Lane with Bill Gillane, Jack Wallisch, Roger Hornsby, Ricky Achord and Steve Thompson 199-193 for the win. They first knocked off the 4th place Cajun Razorbacks with Jack Van Arsdall, Steve Cross, Sam McGrew, Tommy Williams and Kenny Fayard 243-180. 3rd place Ziggy & Zapper with Ricky Siegfried, David Zappitelli, Hayes Taylor, Rusty Bethley and Jim Redlinger were beaten 243-199.

Thanks to Rod Fessler and crew for their great hospitality, good food and down home friendliness for being gracious hosts.

The lane conditions were demanding, with the field averaging 188.9. There were 16 games under 140, making Vowell's lone 300 even more remarkable. Only Vowell, Livermore, Steve Thompson, Kenny Tynan and Phil Ballard shot higher than their entering average.

Kenny Robertson led the parade for "Dog of the Week" with a brilliant 105. JB had a CP. Ricky "looked good". Super Dave made every left side spare...and missed every one on the right. Waddell has a new "baby". The Law Dog got off the schneid the last game. Suggs scratched out all of his hair.

The 1st SASBA Ladies No-Tap Tourney was held Sat. morning and was a big success. There were 19 entrants and a Calcutta was held and Zapp forced almost every husband into a corner to liven the action. 1st place went to Betty Gillane with an 832. Diane Edwards shot two 300s for 2nd place at 820 and Alene Hensley got 3rd with a 759.

Our next tournament is in Walnut Ridge, AR at Campus Cove Lanes on Feb. 18-19. There will be a pro-am on Friday night at 6:30.
