WEST AND LOEFFLER WIN SHOOTOUT IN TUPELO!!

2005 Super Senior of the Year, Roger West, teamed with long-time partner Travis Loeffler to win a strike-filled finals at RebeLanes in Tupelo, MS. Entering the last game, Randy Summers and Gary Ezell had zoomed from the middle of the pack to 2nd place to bowl for the title. They had to win the game by 54 pins to nab the championship. The Southern Louisiana duo had trouble striking and Roger and Travis held them off to win. It was Roger's 6th SASBA title.

Randy and Gary finished 5th as Charlie Hufford and Tyler Corbin got 2nd. Jack Wallisch and Jeff Palmer finished strong to get 3rd and Jimmy Vickery and Sean Quinn got 4th. Saturday, New Orleans legends, Duane Troxler and A.J. Vincent, both struck out from the 8th to squeeze into the finals, then won their first 7 matches and had the lead. They finished 6th, but still a nice showing for the pair.

Thanks again to Kevin Hartigan, Jerry Holt and crew for being outstanding hosts. Their hospitality and food buffet is unmatched! The shot held up pretty well and there were 5 Baker 300s, 2 by the champs. J.R. Little had one in qualifying.

Brian Yoches and Jerry Myles got guest and member "Dogs of the Week" with nice 127s.

The Southern Louisiana boys made their presence felt in the finals and at the buffet. When the food was put out, the first 12 people in line were from Southern LA.

The oldest team in the field (Creasie/McPhail) made the finals, proving that "old guys" can still do it!

Our next tournament is at Millennium Bowl in N. Little Rock on Apr 22-23. The following week, we will be in Monticello, AR at Timber Lodge Lanes for a Super Senior/Senior Doubles. Entry fee is $350 and the field is limited to 32 teams. Don't get shut out!

We have SASBA shirts to try on. We'll be taking orders for a few more weeks, so get your orders in now!
