WEST WINS 7TH SASBA TITLE IN COLUMBIA!

2005 Super Senior of the Year, Roger West, playing outside when no one else could or would, caught PBA superstar George Pappas, who had led from the start in the 7th game of the finals and led by 7 pins. An early turkey by Pappas gave him a short-lived lead and Roger put together 2 doubles, then struck again in the 8th and 9th. Entering the 10th, Roger had to get 9- / & 9 to win the tournament. He flushed it up to beat George and win his 7th SASBA title.

Doug Hayes bowled steady to nail down 3rd and Jim King made his first singles final in over a year to get 4th. Ageless Bernie Carlisle got 5th and Pat Brownfield got 6th. Thanks again to Mike Ransom, Norm Titus and crew for being gracious hosts. They put out a Sr. PBA pattern, which required consistent shotmaking to get to the hole. Getting it to carry was another story.

Billy Sales hadn't bowled in a while and made the finals. Ballard is back! Greg McMahan made his first finals. There will be many more. There was a Millsaps sighting. Bruce Campbell got his 1st check. Ron Benedict was back throwin' it good...after a long, long rehab. Soupy didn't make it. It was good to see a lot of guys who haven't been able to bowl in a while...Fred Walton, Terry Huffman, Jim Counce, Tim Young, Ralph Siebe, Skip Chapman, Chuck Fairchild and Chuck Maher. Don't stay gone so long guys.

Our next tournament is at Jonesboro Bowling Center in Jonesboro, AR, on June 10-11. We have SASBA shirts to try on. We'll be taking orders for a few more weeks, so get your orders in now!
