ROGER WEST WINS 8TH SASBA TITLE!

In a shootout that looked like a Tour de France with different leaders after each stage, Roger West bounced back in the final game to best Doug Hayes and win his 8th SASBA title at RebelLanes in Tupelo, MS. Entering the final match, Roger had to win the game by 13 pins to pass Doug. Roger started with a 7 bagger and Doug went 10 pin (spare) 10 pin (miss it), 10 pin (spare), 10 pin (miss it), strike, 10 pin (spare). Game. Set. Match. Doug was resilient enough to bounce back and go off the sheet to hang on to 2nd place...just in front of a hard-charging Fred Weller. Tony Churchey got 4th and Kenny Winstead dropped from 3rd to 5th in the last match, despite shooting 267.

Thanks to Kevin Hartigan, Jerry Holt and crew for being extra special hosts. The sandwich boards and fruit plates were great! The shot was high scoring and fair on both sides.

DeWayne Thompson shot a 300 with an Ebonite ball and got a $100 bonus.

Grady Creasie also had a 300. Jerry beat Ronnie! Fred Walton blasted everyone away for "Dog of the Week" honors with a fantastic 123. He still beat this writer, which wasn't saying much.

Fred Weller and Dave Hartung made the finals in their first tournament. Jerry beat Ronnie! Mike Mikkelsen led after Saturday. Jimmy Vickery led the qualifying. The Huckster is throwing it good again.

75 years young and five foot 20 inch Jim Moore bowled great...with urethane equipment...after losing his entire arsenal!

"Little Guppy" was brilliant! Jerry beat Ronnie!

For those who sometimes don't show up on Sunday because they bowled bad on Saturday, it should be noted that Fred Weller was in 46th place starting Sunday morning (122 pins out). After 4 more games, he was the cut number and almost won the tournament. Very inspiring Fred! Well done!
