OZIO/LARACUENTE WIN SQUEAKER!!!

On a demanding lane condition, where spares were at a premium, any of 4 teams could still win the tournament with only 2 frames remaining. If King/Inocencio had struck out from the 8th, they would have won. If Young/Austin had struck out in the 10th, they would have won. If McCordic/Williams had struck out in the 10th, they could have iced the victory...having the lead with 1 to go. But, Ozio/Laracuenta did strike out in the 9th and 10th and narrowly edged Paul McCordic and Mark Williams for a hard-earned victory at Lafayette Lanes in Lafayette, LA. over the Labor Day weekend.

Many thanks to Randy LeBlanc and Ric Boudreaux for all their hard work in raising the added money and making us feel welcome. The boudin and cracklins were great! The Jambalaya was awesome!

The lane conditions were hard again this year, but very fair...left and right. If everyone bowled on this shot once in a while, they would become better bowlers, though their patience would be tested.

Mark Van Meter won the Friday sweeper and made the finals in his first SASBA tournament. Gary Roussell Jr. and Chuck Pierce nailed down the "Dogs of the Week" honors with a nice 119 and 129 respectively.

In the Saturday singles events, the results were as follows:

1. David Ozio $700
2. Chuck Souzer $550
3. DeWayne Thompson $400
4. Don Robinson $300
5. Bob Livermore $250

In the guests division, the results were as follows:

- 1-2 Tie between Steve Weber and Chris Johnson. $600 each
3. Nicky McClantoc $390
4. Craig Divers $290
5. Mark Williams $225
