EDWARDS, HOWELL, HARRIS, POFF WIN TEAM TOURNEY

The Angular Ones team of Sam Howell, Doyle Harris, Ben Edwards and Bill Poff stayed close to the lead all weekend, grabbed the last qualifying spot, then beat the Big Times 233-184 and the tournament leaders, the Overtimes 223-204 to grab the title.

It was Doyle Harris' first SASBA title, Poff's second, Edwards' second and Howell's fourth.

The Overtimes were comprised of Doug King, Gene Bergeaux, Charles Alexander, and Charlie Hufford. The Big Times included Kenny Robertson, Stephen Adams, Phil Thompson and Mel Wood.

Thanks from all of us to Phil and Vickie Thompson, who went the extra mile again by taking this tournament on short notice and still made us all feel welcome and comfortable. They had another great pro-am and many fans were in attendance.

I'm not sure why some of our bowlers are reluctant to bowl this tournament. It is the most equal format we have and by far...the most fun! Even the last place team had a good time. Next year, we will try and make it better.

Doc Williams edged out Carl Hensley 143-147 for the "Dog of the Week" award. Alene Hensley won the 2nd Annual SASBA Ladies and Wives No-Tap Tourney.

Don't forget the Bob Summerville Memorial in Ft. Worth on Thanksgiving weekend. Entry fee is $160 and includes 3 days of bowling, plus sweepers on Thursday.

Our last tournament of the year is the Annual Championship in Baton Rouge.

The professor was zinging it faster than anyone...and striking! Much to Gordon's disappointment, no one left the lily! T.J. liked his bowling shoes so much, he wore them to dinner! Dennis Moody hosted a poker game and supplied table, chairs, cards, chips and money for the winners!
