OZIO ROMPS TO ANNUAL CHAMPIONSHIP!!!

David Ozio, just back from the GBT wars, showed everyone how it is done by winning the SASBA SC Annual Championship in Baton Rouge by exactly 500 pins!

The lanes were a little tricky for the rest of us as their were huge games and terrible games in the finals and qualifying. 65 yr. old Walker Stewart got 2nd place, Bill Poff was 3rd and Paul McCordic nailed down 4th place.

Thanks to Stuart Moss for being gracious hosts. The shot was fair left and right, in spite of the lane machine malfunction Sunday.

Doyle Harris got "Dog of the Week" with a 115. Mike Kenerson had the only 300 game. Gordon was there to present lily club awards to Fred Barnes and Leon Aragon. Jerry Holt left one before he left as did Fred in the finals. Lundgren is my new corner pin coach.

Kenny Winstead has blocked all the Food channels on his TV. There was a Walton and Welch sighting!

It took +90 to cash and bowl Sunday morning. Dennis Moody and Carl Hensley won the 2nd chance sweeper and $110 ea.

The ballots are out for the Bowler of the Year voting. Please return by Dec. 31st so your vote will count. The schedule is out for next year. The first tournament will be in Alexandria Jan. 20-21. Rusty Bethley has sold sponsorships to enable us to come there. Let's all support him and kick off the new year with a big turnout!

This concludes the 7th full year of the South Central region of SASBA. With all our health problems and two ladies named Katrina and Rita, the last two have been tough. However, we're still here and still bowling and having fun and we are looking forward to a great 2007. Please tell your friends about us and help support the 2007 SASBA SC tour.
