BILL POFF IN RUNAWAY!

Bill Poff started the tournament with a 300 (using an Ebonite ball-$100 bonus) and led wire to wire to win his 3rd SASBA title in Monticello, AR. Bill made the carry look easy while everyone else struggled with carry both days. Super Seniors reigned as Grady Creasie nailed down 2nd place and Fred Barnes got 3rd. “Youngster” Jim Stephens was 4th and Bill Gillane rounded out the top five.

Thanks again to Phil and Vicki Thompson for going the extra mile to make us feel welcome. Although the carry was baffling, the pattern was fair left and right and all styles made the finals. Thanks also to all the local volunteers who helped with scoring and trouble calls.

Paul Stephens made his first finals. Eddie Russell got “Dog of the Week” with a nice 124. There were no lilies. JR Little made the finals again. Blane got a Sunday check. A.D. Byrd was there on Friday. Randy beat Kenny. Addington “liked” getting a SS check.

Our next tournament is in Bowling Green, KY at Southern Lanes. Then, we go to Conway, AR the 2nd weekend in May.

NEW! NEW! NEW!

We started a new event for 2007...The Ultimate Sweeper. The top 5 scores from the Friday sweepers will automatically qualify for the finals on Saturday morning of the Annual Team Championship in Monticello, AR. $1 from each sweeper entry will go into the Ultimate Sweeper Finals. Qualifiers will be posted at each tournament. Ex: If you win the sweeper and are already qualified, we’ll take the next highest score that hasn’t qualified...and so on.
