Jim Stephens wins squeaker in meridian

Jim Stephens never lead until the end, but stayed close all the way and was 2 pins behind Doug Hayes going into the position round. Ron Ware trailed Jim by 29. In the last game, Jim started fast with a 4-bagger and Doug struggled. Ron opened then strung 6 in a row. Jim missed a 3-7, then converted a 3-10. Ron opened again in the 8th, making it possible for Jim to seal the win with a mark in the 10th. Jim spared for a 211 giving him his 10th SASBA title and 1st in the South Central region. Ron struck out for 234 and nailed down 2nd place. Doug got 3rd, A.J. Vincent got 4th in his first SASBA and George Pappas rounded out the top 5.

Thanks to M.A. Copeland and crew for being gracious hosts. Their AC was out all week and they had the repairment jumping thru hoops to get ready for our tourney.

Gary Waddell won "Dog of the Week" with a beautiful 127 game. Bill beat Dale and Dave. Everybody won at the casino except Ben. Kenny won the "wet shirt" contest on Friday. Coover delivered chicken during the finals.

Batman made it. Batwoman was pleased. We had 5 first timers and many who have been on the disabled list...59 in all.

Our next tournament is in Memphis at Winchester Bowl. It is a member/guest doubles. If you need a partner contact me, Carl Barsotti or Clyde Gehringer.

With the rush of late entries into this tournament, we almost had to turn people away. We cannot bowl 6 on a pair and if 3 people hadn't scratched, the last two would not have got in. In our region, we often bowl one squad, since sometimes the field isn't large enough for two. Sometimes, just an entry or two can make the difference between one or two squads and someone getting shut out or not. We want all the entries we can get of course, but please let us know sooner, if possible.

The Labor Day Blowout will return to the 12 games qualifying/match play finals format, but will feature a prize list each day of qualifying, in addition to the finals.
