SWANK/ZUNIGA IN WILD FINALS!

Jerry Swank and Jack Zuniga teamed up to win a hotly contested finals at Winchester Bowl in Memphis, TN. The lead changed hands at least 12 different games as 4 teams led at one time or another and 7 teams were within 30 pins at some point.

Gary Pfeil and Clint Johnson shot lights out Saturday and held the lead at various times Sunday to finish 5th. Jerry Beavers and Pete Thomas never led in the finals, but crept up all day and got 3rd place. Jim Stephens and Chris Johnson bowled for the title and finished 2nd. Roger West and Travis Loeffler got 4th and Carl Barsotti and Donnie Wilson got 6th.

Terry Hoesly made his first finals. Jerry Swank had the only 800 by a Senior. West/Loeffler and Doug Hayes and Aaron Hayes both had Baker 300s in the finals. Member George Porter and Guest Brian Huckelberry got "Dogs of the Week" with 136 and 128 respectively.

The 2nd oldest team in the tournament of Johnny McPhail and J.R. Little made the finals and moved upward to finish in 9th place. Great bowling guys! Lee Chandler made an appearance and started with the front 11.

Our next tournament is a regular singles in Little Rock, AR at Millennium Bowl. Then Labor Day weekend, we'll be at Lafayette, LA for the Labor Day Blowout. It has $3500 added and will feature 2 days of qualifying and a match play finals on the 3rd day. Check will be given for the top 3rd of the field on each day of the qualifying...in addition to the finalists prizes.

NEW! NEW! NEW!

We started a new event for 2007...The Ultimate Sweeper. The top 5 scores from the Friday sweepers will automatically qualify for the finals on Saturday morning of the Annual Team Championship in Monticello, AR. $1 from each sweeper entry will go into the Ultimate Sweeper Finals. Qualifiers will be posted at each tournament. Ex: If you win the sweeper and are already qualified, we'll take the next highest score that hasn't qualified...and so on.
