PAUL MCCORDIC WINS 4TH SASBA TITLE!

Paul McCordic led the qualifying, fell behind early in the finals, but rallied with big games to win his 4th SASBA title at Four Season Bowl in Alexandria, LA. Nice bowling Paul, you beat a tough field. Rick Minier came from way behind to have a shot at the title and finished second. Judy Vogel amazed everyone with how she was able to play in the dirt and throw lots of strikes and nabbed 3rd place. This performance tied Donna Conner as the highest SASBA finish by a female. Jim Stephens got 4th and Kenny Tynan finished out the top 5.

This was our first trip to Alexandria. Rusty Bethley organized the event, sold sponsorships and was a wonderful host. Free gumbo! What more could you ask for. The shot was tough, much drier than usual plus worn track and middles. Mental toughness was a big key.

Paul Coover shot the only 300. Mike Holland nosed out Eddie Russell for the "Dog of the Week" 120-121. It was good to see Bobby Wilkinson back in the finals again after some medical problems. Kenny Winstead left a 5-8-9. Talk about deflection! Livermore got his clothes borrowed! Lanson Chien and Darlene Plaia celebrated birthdays on Saturday. Jim Stephens, Gary Pfeil, Ricky Achord and Bill Stayton all did their version of the Machuga Flop! I'm glad no one was seriously injured.

Our next tournament is in Fort Smith, AR on Feb 3-4. They have a big program scheduled. It's good to be going back to Fort Smith to see the coach.
