Ron Ware Wins #2 in Little Rock AR

We had 28 bowlers show up for our first stop at Professor Bowl West in Little Rock AR. Dave Gibson and his staff did a good job for us and we are looking forward to another stop at his center. Scott Huther looked like he was going to run away with tournament early, but was run down by Ron Ware. This was Ron’s second title.

Eddie Russell was back after a long layoff, and it was good to see him on the lanes again.

We had 36 Entries in Fridays sweeper with Phil Kepner winning with a 472.

Our next stop is in Nashville where we will be returning to Tusculum Lanes. The Pope family always provide a clean establishment and friendly staff. Saturday’s start time will have a late start due to the youth league bowling Saturday morning. Our meeting will start at 11:30 on Saturday with bowling starting immediately afterwards. Sunday’s bowling will start at the normal time of 8:45 a.m.

Put the balls in the trunk and visit Nashville.....don’t think we will have any flood waters, but then again it needs to stop raining. Hope to see you all there.

Thanks to all the bowlers who bought bowling balls.....we will have more in Nashville.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

Many thanks to M&M team of Laura Madson and Mark Thompson for helping run the stop in Little Rock, in Delilah's absence.

Delilah just returned to work on February 18th and couldn't make the trip due to work commitments. She will see everyone at Tusculum Lanes in Nashville.
