Double “T”s Team Capture Win

Thirty was the magic number again.....we just can't stay above that benchmark entry number.

Doubles are always a fun tournament. You never know who will be spot on as a team. And, then Baker on Sunday can prove to be the downfall of many a strong Saturday group.

The “Louisiana Toyota” group definitely came to bowl. Perry Dufrene and Johnny Cortez were the top individual scores on Saturday.

Troutt and Tyler finally kept right on rolling to the final frame.....finishing with a 233 pin lead over 2nd place finishers Hufford and Kramer.

Doug and his partner were destined to finish 5th. Both were 5th on Saturday's individual qualifying, qualified 5th and finished 5th. Maybe we should have gone gambling.

We all hope Ben Edwards continues to recover from his knee issue.

Roger left his pants at home and had to shop at Wal-Mart. We almost had a “White” out, four Whites bowled with one no show.

Gone, gone, gone.....that is again the status of our Ebonite balls.....my garage continues to maintain a few empty spots.

Check the web-site for any updates regarding the next stops scheduled for the Southeast Region.

See you wherever it may be??

Sweeper Results - Tupelo MS

Seventeen bowlers bowled in the Friday afternoon Sweeper, all members.....No guests.....too early for them.

11TH FRAME

Good to KNOW INFO

An easy, uneventful weekend....great time to relax and unwind. Still nice enough weather so bowlers can go golfing after Saturday's completion.

I'm sure quite a few found the nearest TV to watch an afternoon and evening of college football.....did Tony have his notebook and phone?

We ate at Woody's for the first time, it came highly recommended by Kristy and Rudy.....what great food.....and the "Snicker Ravioli" was too die for

Until the next tournament.....
