CJ CJ CJ CJ CJ

CJ Johnson bested Bob McGregor to win the Ebonite Senior Tour tournament in Longview. On a very demanding condition CJ bowled great all weekend, from the sweeper till the last ball Sunday. Magoo was the leader going into the final match bowling Johnson. CJ needed a win by 15 pins to capture the championship. They bowled on 23/24 which was the lowest scoring pair all weekend. CJ forced Magoo to double in the tenth and Bob left the ten pin. Jim Ensminger was the qualifying leader and never had a 200 game in the finals until the seventh game, but he hung around the leaders by winning matches. Jim finished third, Mark Estes was fourth, and John Hawkins came in fifth.

We are getting entries for our mixed four man team tournament in Plano the first weekend in December.

Please remember that to reserve your spot the $640 has to be paid.

Our next event is our annual Masters Tournament in Fort Worth. The SS will bowl at 9AM and Seniors will bowl at 2PM Saturday. One third of each division will reach the finals. The first single game elimination match will be in division, then they will be mixed by draw. See ya there!!!!!!!!!!

Jamie's Tournament Notes

Jim Paine rolled 117 the first game of the tournament after fifteen minutes of practice to win the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

C J Johnson rolled a 300 game with his Big Time to win $100 from Ebonite.

Charlie Pickett had three CP's.

There were too many RB's to mention.

David Addington liked it, Ronnie Diamond didn't. Ronnie retired after Saturday and un-retired after Sunday.

Jim King is slowly improving after surgery in South Haven, Mississippi, after his heart attack. We all wish him a speedy recovery. Also George Meisner is in the hospital trying to recover from a severe rare illness, include him in your prayers.

If you have not tried Ebonite's new ball, The One, get one it is a must to have in your arsenal.

HALLOWEEN HOOT AT LONGVIEW

Eleven Red Hatters and one guest gathered in Longview to celebrate Halloween, and using the season for the reason, gave new meaning to the word "costumes". Why Peggy Brooks even grew a nose for the occasion; Jan Colaluca grew two ears and a tail; our lone "Pink Hatter", Debbie Ellison, grew fangs; Miss Ellen from Mississippi came by way of "Starship Enterprise"; Molly Gregg was faceless; Bettie Sands came as a "Pumpkin Witch"; Lavella Roper was there with her singing hat; and yours truly (if I do say so myself) made a very fine "Indian/Gypsy Fortuneteller", complete with crystal ball! If you haven't visited the website to look at the pictures, courtesy of our official photographer, Gayle Currie, please do so. All the costumes were great, but you might know, our Miss Brooks won again! We are considering banning her from competition next year.

We had a great time at Barron's Café. Thankfully we had an area all to ourselves, because we did get a little rowdy – after all it was Halloween! The decorated pumpkins added such a festive touch. What a talented group of ladies we have. We had pumpkins of all sizes from big to very, very tiny. Some, amazingly, resembled their owners. I'm sure they were all winners, but Jan Colaluca took home the prize for the best one. Be sure to check them out on the website.

The food was good, but the best part was the "Witch Cookie" we each received from our hostess, Lavella Roper, although I am not sure I believe her story about getting up at the crack of dawn to decorate them. But, to show our appreciation for an event well done, we presented Lavella with a little "thank-you" gift, and she was lucky enough to receive one from her Secret Sister as well. Molly Gregg won the door prize and Debbie Ellison claimed the "Ladybug Award". We were so happy to have Sue Ellison in attendance that we gave her a hug and a bear. We even had a "drop in" visit from a group of Red Hatters from Carthage, TX. They were having lunch at Barron's Café too.

After lunch some of us adjourned to Dressin' Gaudy (a favorite dress shop for Red Hatters), and we didn't raise an eyebrow. Guess they are used to strangely dressed women.

If you weren't there, we missed you, and you missed a really good time.

Silliness keeps you young!
