SS MILTON SMITH

Super Senior Milton Smith ran away with the Ebonite Senior Tour Tournament at All Star Lanes in Shreveport. This was Milton's first SASBA victory. He used his new Ebonite Infinite One ball all of the way through the tournament. He racked up a 300 game and received $100.00 from Ebonite. Donald Robinson finished second, Fred Barnes third, Jackie Putnam fourth and Avery Leblanc fifth. Looks like when some of our super stars are away, we have new guys in the finals and winning. We will be in Longview this week. The Hotel will be posted on the web site Monday night. We will have the house shot this year!!!!!! See ya there!!!!!!!!!!

Doyle Harris rolled a 127 game and won the dog of the week award for low game of the tournament.

Charlie Pickett had 3 CP's and Chuck Kent had one.

Ronnie Diamond set a new land speed record returning to Dallas. I wonder if he bowled bad. He was getting lessons from Jim King during the tournament.

Jym Graham got his first SASBA cash.

Jackie Putnam bowled

great.

Claude beat Syd again and Rusty Bethley too!

Fred Barnes is on a hot streak.

David Addington didn't like it.

DE'JAVU ALL OVER AGAIN!

For a moment I thought we were back in Port Arthur as nine Red Hatters and their guests headed out in three cars to the Roses and Lace Tea Room last Saturday morning. After a hiccup or two we all finally managed to arrive at our destination. It was a beautiful day for a tea party and our hostess, Bettie Sands, arranged a great one. The food, the ambiance, and of course, the company, were outstanding. Good job, Bettie!

Our guests were Denise Ashford (Lavella Roper's daughter), Mary Rasti (wife of Shawn Rasti), Donna Gunter and Bobbie Harris (friends of Bettie Sands), and "Honey", who, unlike most of the group, sat quietly and paid close attention to every word I said. Everyone was in fine form - Peggy Brooks was being "Peggy", Alene Hensley was being sassy and looking elegant in her "hatuation" hat, CeCe Garcia was late (again - but we love her anyway), Donna Smith came even though Fred didn't bowl, Lavella Roper drove all the way from Pennsylvania, Barbara Redlinger was smiling as usual, Pat Paine was there and looking great, and Bettie Sands was doing what she does best - making sure everyone had a good time. Kathy King and Debbie Ellison stayed behind to mind the bracket table, but we told them what a good time they missed. We missed our official photographer, Gayle Currie - Gayle, hope you are feeling better.

We gifted our hostess, Bettie, with a beautiful dish garden to thank her for a job well done. Barbara Redlinger provides all our hostess gifts and we really appreciate her thoughtfulness and generosity. The door prize (a beautiful blue and white china plate) was won by that lucky Peggy Brooks. All our door prizes are provided by Ellen Wall from east of the Mississippi - thank you, Ellen. You were really missed! The Ladybug Award for promptness and good manners went to Barbara Redlinger.

Several lucky ladies, including yours truly, received wonderful gifts from their Secret Sisters.

All our events are different, but alike in one respect - we always have a good time!

Happy to be a Red Hatter!
Queenie Jeanne

PREVIEW OF NEXT EVENT

Mark your calendar and don't miss our next event at Bawd-sley Manor Tea Room in San Antonio on Saturday, November 11. Our hostess, Alene Hensley, is planning a wonderful event for us so be sure to be there. Watch the next newsletter for full details of this event.
