Out on The Twig

Maury Newman wins 14th SASBA title!

Dale Dumbleton, who just turned 60, led the qualifying and looked like he would run away with the tournament, but his carry percentage started to go down in the finals. Jim Ensminger caught him with a big 300, but Jim's carry slacked off as well. Entering the final match, Charlie Hufford held the lead by 25 pins over Maury Newman. Whoever won the match would win the title. Maury started with a four-bagger and Charlie with a turkey. Then Charlie doubled in the 8th and 9th and got within one pin. Maury struck in the 9th and first ball in the 10th and one more would shut him out, but a stubborn 10-pin gave Charlie a chance. He needed the first two in the 10th to win the tournament. A 10-pin stood and Maury had his 14th SASBA victory.

Thanks to Mike, Jo, Syd and all the crew at All Star Lanes for being gracious hosts. They have the new carpet installed and increased lighting. The place looks great!

Ensminger got 3rd, Dale shot a big last game to get back to 4th and Gary Dickinson rounded out the top five.

300s were shot by Hufford and Jim Ensminger

Our next tournament is a regular singles in San Antonio at Astro Bowl. They have resurfaced the lanes and we look for a scorable condition. The following week, we will be in Tulsa at AMF Sheridan. The first week in April is the regular trio in Euless, TX. If you need help forming a team, let us know.

Jim's Notes

JJ left the lily. Eddie Russell has a new bride. They got married Friday. Jimmy Tyler made his first finals. "Roger was gripping it and ripping it!" Septuagenarian Tip Bullock made it and finished 6th. Great bowling Tip!

Jims Tip:

Are you still using reverse pitch on the thumb? We all did it in the 60s and 70s, but today's game requires a different release. We aren't as strong as we used to be and forward thumb pitch helps the ball hold onto you instead of you having to hold onto the ball.

Friday Sweeper Results

1. Rudy Garcia 526
2. Pat Currie 502
3. D. Dumbleton 499
- 4.
- 5.
