Out on The Twig

Ron Williams/Tyler Jensen win Doubles in Beaumont!

Ron "King of the Hill" Williams turned 50 on Saturday, then qualified fourth with Tyler Jensen at Crossroads Bowling Center in Beaumont, TX. Rick and Paul Minier led the qualifying and for the first 7 games of the finals, but Tyler and Ron grabbed the lead and pulled away...building a big lead, then holding them off in the final game to win the title. Robert Dunaway and Donnie Davis, qualified 18th, and climbed all the way to nab 3rd place. Pete Thomas and Geoffrey Young got 4th and Randy Ray and Charlie Mills rounded out the top five.

Thanks to Mark and Debbie Williams and staff for being great hosts. The pattern was the house shot this year and fair left and right.

We had 61 entries this year...10 more than last year. It was one of the strongest fields ever.

We had 3 new members and 1 (Charles Ball) who hadn't bowled in several years. We had bowlers from as far away as Florida and Kansas.

Our next tournament is next weekend at USA Bowl in Dallas. The following weekend, we'll be at Lake Air Lanes in Waco, TX.

Jim's Notes

David Anthony left the only lily, and squashed the Cupcake. We had three father/son teams and one father/son-in-law team. Always nice to see. Brian Viator had the only 300. Phil Gessner/Derek Williams and Don Robinson/Jonathan Wiley had Baker 300s in the finals.

Jim's Tip: Some right-handed players seem to stand in one place and look at one target for left side spares, regardless of the degree of breakdown. Unless you're throwing it straight, you should adjust your feet and target off your strike spot. The oil in the middle provides "area" for strike balls. You can enjoy this "area" on left-side spares, but you have to move with the oil.

Friday Sweeper Results

1. Mark Busscher 515
2. Pete Thomas 474
3. Mark Scime 473
4. Maury Newman 470
5. Eric Roddy 464
