POFF WINS 1ST!

Last year's Rookie of the Year, Bill Poff, battled for the lead all during the finals and entering the last game, only trailed Ed Vowell by 26 pins, so whoever won the game would probably win the tournament. Qualifying leader Doug Hayes was bowling Gary Dickinson in the 3-4 slots and could possibly overtake the leaders with a monster game. Poff had an early 5 bagger to get the lead, but Vowell battled back. In the 9th, Ed left a stone 8 pin and Bill only had to mark to beat him. At the same time, Doug got the front 9 and could make Bill double in the 10th with a 300. He rung a 10 pin and Bill got a Brooklyn strike to seal the victory. Ed got 2nd and Doug and Gary tied for 3rd and 4th.

Mike Fleming got 5th and Dennis Moody got 6th in his first tournament.

Thanks to Shane Gillmore for being a great host. He graciously agreed to move this tournament up two weeks to accommodate a schedule change in the Southwest region.

300s were rolled by Ralph Pridmore, Fred Barnes (2), Mike Fleming, Doug Hayes and Ralph also had an 800. One of Fred's and Mike's and Doug's were rolled with Ebonite balls, garnering them an extra $100 apiece.

Stephen Adams got "Dog of the Week" with a beautiful 137.

GARY-MAURY BY 1 PIN!

The team of Gary Dickinson and Maury Newman squeaked out a 1 pin victory over David Ozio and C.J. Johnson in Monticello, AR. They had to stay within 19 pins in the final match and it was close all the way with David and C.J. holding a slim lead. Ozio got the first strike in the 10th, forcing Maury to mark. He left the 3-6-10, not the spare you want to shoot in such a situation. David struck again and Maury picked up the spare. Ozio struck out and Maury had to get 9 on the fill ball to win and did just that, leaving a 10 pin. Bill Poff and Kenny Winstead got 3rd and David Rountree and Jim Stephens nabbed 4th place.

Thanks to Phil and Vickie Thompson for being great hosts! The shot was fair for both sides and held up well, though carry was a problem for some.

Dan Duncan and David Addington tied for "Dog of the Week" with awesome 138s. Dan left a lily in the sweeper and Tommy Crouch left one in the finals. Steve beat DeWayne!

Our next tournament is at Galaxy Lanes in Columbia, TN. Its our first time in this region since last year. Let's have a big turnout for Ebonite!
